HR# _____ is particularly interesting to me because _____

I understand that I am committing to my first choice topic with the possibility of switching to my second choice topic. I understand that switching topics puts me behind in deadlines and can require more work. I have sought counsel on these topics and confident that I can find enough material for one or both of them. I have spoken with my parents/guardians about this topic as well.

I give my student permission to research these topics. I will monitor and supervise the research they do outside of school.
